A FILM SET

PONTEVEDRA: UNIQUE OR ALIKE?

The province of Pontevedra has been the setting for relevant films and series, such as Mondays in the Sun (Fernando León de Aranoa, 2002), The Skin I Live In (Pedro Almodóvar, 2011) or, the most recent ones, A Private Affair (Amazon Prime, 2022) and Cocaine Coast (Atresmedia, 2018)

It is rich in natural spaces, historical places and resources offering different scenarios, which allow to change scenes in an instant and move to a different world without leaving the province.

In Pontevedra we can travel back in time or to another city: to the Barcelona of the 20s in La sombra de la ley, to the outbreak of the Spanish Civil War in Los gozos y las sombras, to the 40s in A Private Affair, to the 80s in Cocaine Coast, to the devastated country of Syria in La unidad, and even go back to the turbulent Middle Ages in El final del Camino.

Pontevedra enjoys ideal locations to create different worlds and scenes where any story can come true

A WINDOW TO THE WORLD

It has a rugged coastline with cliffs, stunning sceneries, beaches, islands and marshes, similar to the landscapes of Europe, Chile or any other place you wish to film in.

Thick and damp woodlands, rivers, pools and waterfalls bring us closer to other countries that share cultural similarities with us.

NAPA, PROVENCE, TUSCANY...

International vineyards and wineries in Pontevedra, capturing the essence of the Atlantic Ocean.
